Re: Michael Adams v. Menemsha Corp., Muzaffer Ozak and Lex Hixon Archive Foundation Inc., Civil Action No.: 20-cv-01523-AT Letter-Motion for Extension of Time to Move for Default Judgment per DE#36

Dear Judge Analisa Torres:

I represent the Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter.

The Court entered and Order [D.E. 36] requiring the Plaintiff to re-apply for a Default Final Judgment no later than October 27, 2020.

The Plaintiff is in the process of putting together the records and documentation for costs and time entries to amend and submit the revised declaration and proposed orders in compliant with Rule III., m., of this Court's Individual Rule in Civil Cases.

Undersigned needs an additional week to compile, complete, and submit this information and documentation necessary to obtain the Default Final Judgment (through November 4, 2020) pursuant to this Court's Individual Rules.

Thank you for your consideration.

GRANTED. By November 4, 2020,
Plaintiff shall submit his renewed motion for default judgment.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 28, 2020
New York, New York

Respectfully Submitted,
